Overview: The Flame Resistant (FR) Silk-Weight Underwear, Cold Weather provides protection in cold weather environments.

Features: The FR Silk-Weight Underwear, Cold Weather part of the Mountain Cold Weather Clothing Layering System and has replaced the Underwear, Silk-Weight, Cold Weather. Provides improved moisture management and insulation in cold weather environments. The undershirt has a mock turtle neck collar and long sleeves with monkey paws. The drawers have been modified to a cuff-less leg. The underwear comes in a coyote stretch grid fleece material (a Polartec Power Dry fabric) that has moisture wicking and anti-odor properties. Both consist of a no melt and no drip flame resistant material.

Components: Undershirt and drawers
